

PZB
马地 天乱

1 out of 4 sexually active teens will get a sexually transmitted infection this year.

If you are sexually active, you should be screened for STDs at least once a year.

Ask your healthcare provider. A simple test can determine if you have chlamydia or gonorrhea. Both can be easily cured with antibiotics!

StoptheSilence.org

Protect Our Blood, Know Your Status

GET TESTED

