

Injury Prevention Summit 2009

Portland, Oregon

When:

9:00am -4:30pm
September 24, 2009
*lunch provided

Where:

Northwest Portland Area
Indian Health Board
527 SW Hall Street
Portland, OR 97201

Who Should Attend?

The target audience for this summit includes community members, tribal health program staff, and others who are interested in or are already practicing preventing injuries in their communities.

All participants will receive an "Injury Prevention in Indian Country" Toolkit*

 Summit and Toolkit topics are: Child Safety Seats, Seatbelts, Helmets and Bicycle Safety, Elder Falls Prevention, Home and Fire Safety*

Hosted By:

Northwest Portland Area
Indian Health Board
Indian Leadership for Indian Health

Attendance is FREE!

To RSVP or for more information please contact:
Jaci McCormack, TECC Project Specialist
527 SW Hall Street
Portland, OR 97232
jmccormack@npaihb.org
503-416-3304

*Travel scholarships are available

Did you know?

- *Injuries are the leading cause of death for all Native Americans ages 1-44
- *Injuries take the life of a Native American child each day
- *Injuries kill more Native American children than all other causes combined

In Collaboration with:

This summit is supported by Award Number U50 MN024133 from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) through a Cooperative Agreement with NPAIHB and the Tribal Epidemiology Center Consortium. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of CDC.