The United States Department of Justice (DOJ) will be holding a government-to-government Tribal Consultation session October 4 - 5, 2010, at the Northern Quest Resort in Spokane, Washington.

The first day of the consultation will focus on violence against Native women. DOJ will solicit recommendations from tribal leaders on enhancing the safety of Native women and strengthening the federal response to crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.

The second day will be devoted to consultation on DOJ grant funding for tribal governments. DOJ officials would like to hear feedback from tribal leaders about their experiences with the Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS), the new coordinated tribal grants application process utilized by the Department for Fiscal Year 2010, and solicit recommendations for how the process could be improved for Fiscal Year 2011.

DOJ will be hosting a series of scoping calls with interested tribal leaders to develop the agenda for the upcoming consultation session. The first call will take place on Wednesday, August 25, 2010 at 4 p.m. EASTERN Time. The call-in number is 1-888-450-5996; passcode 2179888.

Tribal leaders will receive a formal invitation to the consultation in the upcoming weeks that will include additional information about the specific agenda items for the consultation. Information about the consultation will also be available at <http://www.tribaljusticeandsafety.gov>. We look forward to seeing you in Spokane, WA in October!

If you have questions or concerns about the consultation, please contact: OVW Deputy Director for Tribal Affairs, Lorraine Edmo, lorraine.edmo@usdoj.gov, 202-307-6026.
