“USING THE COMMUNITY COALITION MODEL TO IMPACT CHILDHOOD PUBLIC HEALTH OUTCOMES”

Presented by three program directors:

Adrienne Greene, MPA, state director of Safe Kids Oregon, the state office of Safe Kids USA

Lucie Drum, coordinator of Safe Kids Portland Metro and the Community Education Manager at American Medical Response

Don Porth, chair of Safe Kids Portland Metro and director of Portland Fire and Rescue’s Jeff Morris Fire and Life Safety Museum

The panel will present a wide variety of experiences and successes in leading or participating in coalitions. Panelists will discuss using the coalition model with statewide and regional coalitions, and the experience of a single agency in a coalition model.

Safe Kids Oregon is housed in Oregon Public Health Division and focuses on providing technical support to local Safe Kids coalitions throughout Oregon. Safe Kids Portland Metro encompasses agencies and organizations in Washington, Multnomah, and Clackamas counties that have some focus on childhood injury prevention.*
