

Save the Date

4th Annual Tribal BEAR Project Medical Update Conference

HIV/AIDS, Oral Manifestations & Hepatitis C

With nationally known speakers who work in Native Communities

Offered by: The South Puget Intertribal Planning Agency's Tribal B.E.A.R. Project (Building Effective AIDS Response) funded by HRSA through the Northwest AIDS Education and Training Center at the University of Washington. In partnership with Project Red Talon of the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board, Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), and US Dept of Health and Human Services – Office of Public Health & Science, Region X – HIV/AIDS Regional Resource Network Project.

Day One – Afternoon Session Oral Health and HIV Infection

(Oral Manifestations)

Dinner 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm

(Keynote Speaker: Gordon James, Skokomish)

Day Two - Medical Updates

(HIV/AIDS, MRSA, H1N1, Vaccine Updates, Post Exposure Prophylaxis, Hepatitis C)

When: Thursday May 6th & Friday May 7th, 2010

Where: Squaxin Island Tribe's Little Creek Casino Resort, Shelton, WA, 98584

For Whom: Tribal Clinic and Allied Health Staff

Contact: Jutta Riediger (riediger@spipa.org) 360-462-3224
Michael Maxwell (maxwell@spipa.org) 360-462-3225
BJ Brown (bjbrown@spipa.org) 360-462-3256

Please note:

- Conference participation is FREE!
- Brochures & Agendas will be mailed out by the end of March.
- Limited hotel/travel reimbursement is available to Tribal/Allied Health Staff from Idaho, Oregon, and Washington.
- All travel funds will be disbursed on a “first come – first served” basis through Project Red Talon (NPAIHB).
(Reimbursement instructions are listed in the online registration page)

On line Registration @: <https://catalysttools.washington.edu/webq/survey/spipa/92197>

