

Good afternoon,

RE Emergency Preparedness - Incident Command System trainings

At our last Public Health/Behavioral Health Committee meeting, there was a question about the availability of Incident Command System (ICS) courses for Emergency Preparedness. The FEMA website contains information about the National Incident Management System (NIMS) coursework. Click on the attached link, NIMS Training Courses, and look under the heading “Emergency Management Institute” and you will find the free, online Incident Command System (ICS) courses.

Click on link:

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Thanks,
