Subject: Film Workshop Video from the 2013 THRIVE Conference - Please share!!

Good morning!

I know some of you have been waiting for this. The link for the video created by the Film Production workshop at the 3rd Annual THRIVE Conference has finally arrived! The video is amazing and could be its own PSA for your Tribal Communities!! Great job to all of the youth involved and a special thank you to Courtney Hermann and the Northwest Film Institute in Portland, OR for your hardwork and talents in editing the video clips to create this awesome video. The background music is also from the Conference so thank you Marcus Looney!!
