

WERNATIVE

Lights. Camera. Action.

We R Native Script Writing Contest

Storytelling has been a part of our traditions for many generations. Now through technology, there are more ways to tell our stories than ever before, including through movie making!

Every great movie needs a great script, giving life to what characters say and do... Become a scriptwriter and tell us one of your stories!

How to Enter

Write an original script that includes one of the following themes:

- I strengthen my Nation.
- A young adult helping their community.
- A young adult standing up to peer pressure.
- A young adult impacted by drugs or alcohol.
- A young adult impacted by bullying.
- Or another health-related topic of your choice.

For information on script writing, go to:

<http://www.wikihow.com/Write-a-Script>

Remember:

- Send contest entries to: native@npaihb.org by June 1, 2012
- Include your name(s), tribal affiliation(s), age(s), address, email address, and phone number.
- Written submissions should be no more than 5 pages long.

Winning entries will receive:

$150 (1st place – Individual Award) • $150 (1st place – Team Writing Award)

This contest is open to American Indian and Alaska Native youth 13-21 years old.

We R Native is a health resource for Native teens and young adults, with content and stories - for Native youth, by Native youth - about the topics that matter most to them.

Text "NATIVE" to 24587

Give us some love on Facebook...

Consent: Contest submissions may be showcased on the We R Native website, Facebook page, and/or text messaging services. By submitting an entry, you grant the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board the right to use, edit, and disseminate submissions in print, online, and through other forms of media for educational, public service, or health awareness purposes. By submitting an entry, you release the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board and its agents and employees from all claims, demands, and liabilities whatsoever.