

Subject: Save the DATE: 2012-14 Rape Prevention & Education Grant Program Timeline

To Interested Parties:

The federal Rape Prevention and Education (RPE) Grant Program offers funding for programs to conduct primary prevention of sexual violence strategies and activities. Private, non-profit organizations, public or local governmental agencies (including college and university campuses and public school districts), and local health departments may apply. The next RPE grant period will be from November 1, 2012-October 31, 2014.

The purpose of this email is to give you the timeline for the RPE application and award process, so that you can build it into your calendar if you are considering applying for these funds. The following are key RPE Application and Award process dates:
