

Indian Country ECHO - Opioid & Substance Use Disorders Clinic

Clinicians serving American Indians and Alaska Native people are invited to participate in the Opioid and Substance Use Disorders ECHO Clinic, operated by the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board. The program provides comprehensive information for clinicians to integrate evidence-based substance use disorder treatment with holistic, culturally appropriate care to successfully deal with the effects of opioid use disorder. The program will offer a 2 day in person training with data waiver, and 12 subsequent telehealth sessions.

Lets do More for Our Patients and System

Attend the Training

- December 12-13 in Portland, OR
- No cost to you or your facility
- Receive DATA Waiver Training
- Learn to Screen for Opioid Use Disorder (OUD) and other Substance Use Disorders
- Learn Effective Treatment Approaches for OUD in a Tribal Community
- Get More Information About ECHO

Join Online Clinics

- 12 teleECHO clinics occur Wednesdays from 12-1pm PST beginning January 9 - March 27
- Present cases and receive treatment recommendations from specialists and peers in Indian Country
- Receive support to fully integrate care and respond to the specific needs of your community members
- Together, we will manage patients so that every patient gets the care they need.

Moving Knowledge - Not Patients

Through telementoring, ECHO builds capacity and creates access to high-quality specialty care serving local tribes.

Hub and spoke knowledge-sharing networks create a learning loop:

I/T/U clinicians learn from specialists.
 I/T/U clinicians learn from each other.
 Specialists learn from I/T/U clinicians as best practices emerge.

Join Indian Country ECHO @ IndianCountryECHO.org

Who should join: Physicians, advanced practice providers, pharmacists, nurses, behavioral health specialists, chemical dependency counselors, medical assistants, wellness coaches and others interested in learning new skills are invited to attend.

How: Please complete the registration form online at surveymonkey.com/r/2018OUDtraining.