

NORTHWEST PORTLAND AREA INDIAN HEALTH BOARD
Funding Opportunities
AUGUST 2018

To: Idaho Delegates, Oregon Delegates, Washington Delegates, Tribal Chairs and Tribal Health Directors

Greetings! The NPAIHB - Funding Opportunity is provided on the basis that when there is pertinent announcements we are made aware of, have received and/or researched for as part of our commitment to the health and well-being of our tribal members it is posted here for you. New posts will be available Friday/Monday (unless there are no "New" grant announcements). Please see the "New" Funding Opportunity Information provided in this "color code".

If you have a specific targeted goal or urgent community need and find yourself not knowing where to start "looking for a grant", our assistance is available anytime and we would be very excited to assist you. In addition, at the end of this announcement several funding organizations do not have deadlines and do accept proposals all year round.

Truth Initiative Accepting Applications for Tobacco-Free College Program

DATE: September 13, 2018

AMOUNT: Up to $20,000

DESCRIPTION: Truth Initiative is America's largest nonprofit public health organization dedicated to making tobacco use a thing of the past.

To that end, the organization is accepting applications to its Tobacco-Free College Program from community colleges and minority-serving institutions interested in adopting, implementing, and promoting a 100 percent tobacco-free policy.

Grants of up to $20,000 over seventeen months will be awarded to programs that address the development of a college task force with broad campus representation, including students, staff, faculty, and administrators; assess tobacco-related issues, including behavior, attitudes, and support among students, faculty, and staff; educate and engage the campus community and decision-makers on the need for and benefits of a 100 percent smoke-free or tobacco-free campus; identify a plan to address tobacco treatment for those students, faculty, and staff who are interested in quitting; and develop a policy recommendation for a 100 percent smoke-free or 100 percent tobacco-free policy to present to key decision makers. Recipients also will receive technical assistance through webinars, learning communities, and consultations.

First Nations Accepting Applications for Native Agriculture Scholarships

DEADLINE: October 4, 2018

AMOUNT: Award five $1,000 scholarships for the 2018-19 academic school year

DESCRIPTION: The First Nations Development Institute believes that reclaiming control over local food systems is an important step toward ensuring the long-lasting health and economic well-being of Native people and communities. Native food-system control has the potential to increase food production, improve health and nutrition, and eliminate food insecurity in rural and reservation-based communities while also promoting entrepreneurship and economic development. The purpose of the Native Agriculture and Food Systems Scholarship Program is to encourage more Native American college students to enter these fields so that they can better assist Native communities with their efforts.

Native American college students majoring in agriculture and agriculture-related fields, including but not limited to agribusiness management, agriscience technologies, agronomy, animal husbandry, aquaponics, environmental studies, fisheries and wildlife, food production and safety, food-related policy and legislation, food science and technology, horticulture, irrigation science, nutrition education, and sustainable agriculture or food systems.

To be eligible, applicants must be a full-time undergraduate or graduate student majoring in an agricultural-related field, or be able to demonstrate how their degree program relates to Native food systems and be tribally-affiliated and able to provide documentation. In addition, applicants must have a grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.75.

For complete program guidelines and application instructions, see the First Nations website.

RWJF, GRI Launch Culture of Health for Business Initiative (CONSULTATION ONLY)

DEADLINE: The consultation is open until 12 October 2018.

AMOUNT: (See website link.)

DESCRIPTION: The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) has committed itself to a vision of working alongside others to build a Culture of Health where everyone has the opportunity to live a healthier life. The private sector, particularly large corporations, has a tremendous influence on culture and is integral to achieving high social and health standards for all stakeholders, including employees. Increasingly, shareholders, investors, boards and executives are prioritizing business values and citizenship, as well as financial measures, knowing that these affect public perception, brand and long-term sustainability. And, in order to build a Culture of Health, the private sector and its stakeholders must be engaged.

A growing number of companies recognize their ability to contribute to a Culture of Health and have used their reach and influence to improve the health and well-being of employees, families, and the communities within which they operate. By recognizing the importance of health and well-being across the value chain, businesses reap the rewards of healthier and happier employees, families, and communities with greater productivity and higher retention, for example. Measures, metrics and indicators play a key role in supporting corporate efforts. They promote an understanding of the concept, inform strategic thinking and planning and provide a basis for assessing progress, gaps, and opportunities.

Funding Opportunities

The GRI Global Sustainability Standards (GRI Standards) are a powerful tool for the private sector to accrue, track and report environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues including health-related topics. The GRI Standards include specific health-related disclosures that may fall within the RWJF's defined areas of "health", namely GRI 401: Employment 2016, GRI 403: Occupational Health and Safety 2018, and GRI 416: Customer Health and Safety 2016. Other GRI Standards contain disclosures which are relevant for understanding an organization's impact on health through, for example, its air emissions, waste generation and disposal, or marketing and labeling practices.

RWJF recognizes that the GRI Standards and its global uptake provide a good starting point to build a Culture of Health in which companies play an integral part.

The Culture of Health for Business project is a partnership between the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) and the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI). The project was initiated by the Global Initiative for Sustainability Ratings, since dissolved, in 2017. The three organizations agreed to continue the project under the leadership of GRI.

This project sets out to understand the scientific and technical basis for attributing positive health and business outcomes to an array of business practices – internal programs, policies, benefits, community partnerships and the like – that may or may not be primarily directed toward improvements in population health (i.e., Culture of Health Business Practices, or COHBPs). The project identifies suitable health measures for businesses and investors to use within those COHBPs and contextualizes these measures to promote understanding and use (i.e., the Culture of Health for Business Guiding Principles). Surveys of corporate health disclosures and of health measures in existing ESG reporting frameworks and research methodologies provide reference points for this work.

RWJF seeks to disseminate these health metrics to inform decision-making and enable the private sector to create shared value. RWJF and GRI are collaborating on this project because of their shared interest in the private sector contribution to health through sustainability reporting.

Improving Smoking Cessation Interventions among People Living with HIV (R01 Clinical Trial Optional)

DEADLINE: January 8, 2019, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization. All types of non-AIDS applications allowed for this funding opportunity announcement are due on this date. Applicants are encouraged to apply early to allow adequate time to make any corrections to errors found in the application during the submission process by the due date.

AMOUNT: Application budgets are limited to $500,000 in direct costs in any one year.

DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) is to provide support for research designed to optimize smoking cessation treatment among people living with HIV (PLWH) in the United States (U.S.). Responsive applications must propose research that will be conducted with PLWH and will inform efforts to reduce the incidence of tobacco-related disease and death among PLWH. Research may address the behavioral and sociocultural factors and conditions that are associated with cigarette smoking among PLWH and may also address smoking-related health disparities among PLWH, considering the heterogeneity across the various subgroups of PLWH. This FOA aims to support research to systematically test existing evidence-based smoking cessation interventions (e.g., combination of behavioral and pharmacological) and/or to develop and test adaptations of evidence-based smoking cessation interventions among PLWH. The principal focus of this initiative is on cigarette smoking cessation; however, studies that address dual/poly tobacco product use as part of a cigarette smoking cessation intervention are acceptable. Proposed projects must include prospective, comparative evaluation(s) of the intervention(s) in terms of the rates of cigarette smoking cessation, including sustained abstinence, among current cigarette smokers.

AUGUST 2018

NORTHWEST HEALTH FOUNDATION - Before we can consider your application, your organization must meet these eligibility requirements:

- Your organization must be able to provide documentation of your tax-exempt status, or be sponsored by a fiscal agent who has tax-exempt status.
- Your event must take place within the Foundation's service area and serve some or all people of Oregon and/or SW Washington (Clark, Cowlitz, Pacific, Skamania, and Wahkiakum Counties).

SPONSORSHIPS

DATE: Applications must be submitted at least three months before your event.

AMOUNT: They are now accepting sponsorship applications for events that occur in the next three to twelve months. If your event date(s) fall out of this date range, you are not eligible to apply for sponsorship. Maximum sponsorship awards are $3,000 with the majority awarded at $500-$1,500.

DESCRIPTION: SPONSORSHIPS HELP FURTHER THE FOUNDATION'S VISION OF HEALTHY COMMUNITIES THAT PROMOTE EQUITY AND FOSTER HEALTH FOR ALL.

Sponsorships are also an opportunity for the Foundation to build new partnerships with organizations doing great work in Oregon and SW Washington.

The basics

The Foundation sponsors events across diverse communities throughout Oregon and southwest Washington. Whenever possible, we like to have Foundation representatives as participants at those events too. Sponsorships are available to nonprofit organizations that serve all or some of the people of Oregon and SW Washington (Clark, Cowlitz, Pacific, Skamania, and Wahkiakum Counties), and that promote health or contribute to the factors of health. Organizations may submit one sponsorship application within a calendar year. Applications must be made online, and will be reviewed on a monthly basis. Please refer to the Application Deadlines and Decision Points section for application due dates.

Our priorities

The Foundation believes that a safe, healthy childhood sets the stage for lifelong health and the health of communities for generations to come. But no child raises herself. It's all hands on deck with families and communities helping her succeed. For us, communities are defined in many ways—geographically, by identity, or by common experiences—and each community must determine for itself what health looks like to them.

The Foundation's priority for sponsorships has a particular focus on events that reach or support the following populations:

Race/Ethnicity: The Foundation is committed to promoting equity in regards to race and ethnicity, which includes immigrant and refugee identification.

NORTHWEST PORTLAND AREA INDIAN HEALTH BOARD
Funding Opportunities
AUGUST 2018

Geography: The Foundation makes a concerted effort to reach all areas within our service region, and we are committed to building new relationships in areas where our reach may not be as extensive.

Disability: The Foundation recognizes the health inequities faced by individuals living with physical, mental, and developmental disabilities.

Please note

NWHF does not consider sponsorship requests in the Portland metro region unless they are people of color-led or disability-led.

Typically, they do not sponsor events for:

Public, private or charter schools/universities, including their associations or friends groups

Other foundations including hospital and health systems

National associations, including local chapters

Public/government agencies

Sports leagues and their associations or friends groups

Typically, they do not sponsor:

Runs/walks/races

Direct services

Capital campaigns, including equipment

William T. Grant Foundation Accepting Applications for Institutional Challenge Grants

DEADLINE: September 7, 2018

AMOUNT: Grants of up to $650,000 over three years will be awarded to partnerships in youth-serving areas such as education, justice, child welfare, mental health, immigration, and workforce development.

DESCRIPTION: The William T. Grant Foundation is accepting applications for its Institutional Challenge Grant program, which encourages schools and university-based research institutes and centers to build sustained research-practice partnerships with public agencies or nonprofit organizations with the goal of reducing inequality in youth outcomes. The award supports the efforts of research institutions to build sustained research-practice partnerships with public agencies or nonprofit organizations in order to reduce inequality in youth outcomes. Research institutions applying for a grant will need to address four important goals: build a sustained institutional partnership with a public agency or nonprofit organization that serves young people in the United States; pursue a joint research agenda to reduce inequality in youth outcomes; create institutional change to value the partnership and its work; and develop the capacity of its partners to collaborate and use research evidence.

Grants will provide up to $50,000 for six to nine months of joint planning activities (e.g., refining protocols for partnering, selecting fellows, finalizing partnership agreements, etc.); fellowship support for the equivalent of one full-time or two half-time fellows per year, for two years; up to three years of support to conduct research; and resources to develop the capacities of both partners. In addition, recipients of grants will have the opportunity to apply for a two-year continuation grant in order to solidify the partnership and institutional changes.

The foundation encourages proposals from teams with African-American, Latino, Native-American, and Asian-American individuals in leadership roles. The partnership leadership team also should include the principal investigator from the research institution and the lead from the public agency or nonprofit organization.

Fund for a Just Society – Unitarian Universalist Funding Program

DEADLINE: September 15, 2018

AMOUNT: $15,000

DESCRIPTION: The Fund for a Just Society, a program of the Unitarian Universalist Association, provides grants to nonprofit organizations in the U.S. and Canada that address issues of social and economic justice. The Fund supports organizations that use community organizing to bring about systemic change leading to a more just society; mobilize with those who have been disenfranchised and excluded from resources, power, and the right to self-determination; and have an active focused campaign to create systemic change. Consideration is given to projects that are less likely to receive conventional funding because of the innovative or challenging nature of the work or the economic and social status of the constituency. The maximum grant amount is $15,000; however, most grants range between $6,000 and $8,000. Requests are reviewed two times per year; the next application deadline is September 15, 2018. Visit the Unitarian Universalist Association website to review the funding guidelines.

Notice of Intent to Publish: Tobacco Cessation Interventions Among People Living with HIV/AIDS (R01 Clinical Trial Optional) - Department of Health and Human Services/National Institutes of Health

DEADLINE: Oct 05, 2018

AMOUNT: $500,000

DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this Notice is to announce the NCI's intention to issue a Request for Applications (RFA) for research designed to optimize smoking cessation treatment among people living with HIV (PLWH) in the United States (U.S.). The goal of this RFA is to provide support for studies that employ rigorous designs that seek to systematically test existing evidence-based tobacco cessation interventions (e.g., combination of behavioral and pharmacological) and/or to develop and test adaptations of evidence-based tobacco cessation interventions for this population. The long-term goal is to reduce cigarette smoking rates among PLWH, and thus tobacco-related health disparities in this population. This Notice is being provided to allow potential applicants sufficient time to develop meaningful collaborations and responsive projects. The funding opportunity is expected to be published in the Summer of 2018 with expected application receipt date in Winter of 2018. This funding opportunity will utilize the R01 Research Project Grant mechanism, and is suitable for projects where proof-of-principle of the proposed methodology has already been established and supportive preliminary data are available. This Notice runs in parallel with a Notice of identical scientific scope, NOT - [KA([1] - CA-18-079, which uses the Exploratory/Developmental Grant (R21) mechanism.

Diet and Physical Activity Assessment Methodology (R01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed) - Department of Health and Human Services/National Institutes of Health

NORTHWEST PORTLAND AREA INDIAN HEALTH BOARD
Funding Opportunities
AUGUST 2018

DEADLINE: November 05, 2018

AMOUNT: The number of awards is contingent upon NIH appropriations and the submission of a sufficient number of meritorious applications. Application budgets are not limited but need to reflect the actual needs of the proposed project. The total project period may not exceed five years.

DESCRIPTION: This Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) encourages innovative research to enhance the quality of measurements of dietary intake and physical activity. Applications submitted to this FOA may include development of: novel assessment approaches; better methods to evaluate instruments; assessment tools for culturally diverse populations or various age groups, including children and older adults; improved technology or applications of existing technology; statistical methods/modeling to improve assessment and/or to correct for measurement errors or biases; methods to investigate the multidimensionality of diet and physical activity behavior through pattern analysis; or integrated measurement of diet and physical activity along with the environmental context of such behaviors.

Time-Sensitive Obesity Policy and Program Evaluation (R01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed) - Department of Health and Human Services/National Institutes of Health

DEADLINE: November 5, 2018

AMOUNT: Application budgets are not limited but need to reflect the actual needs of the proposed project. The scope of the proposed project should determine the project period. The maximum project period is 5 years.

DESCRIPTION: This Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) establishes an accelerated review/award process to support time-sensitive research to evaluate a new policy or program that is likely to influence obesity related behaviors (e.g., dietary intake, physical activity, or sedentary behavior) and/or weight outcomes in an effort to prevent or reduce obesity. This FOA is intended to support research where opportunities for empirical study are, by their very nature, only available through expedited review and funding. All applications to this FOA must demonstrate that the evaluation of an obesity related policy and /or program offers an uncommon and scientifically compelling research opportunity that will only be available if the research is initiated with minimum delay. For these reasons, applications in response to this time-sensitive FOA are not eligible for re-submission. It is intended that eligible applications selected for funding will be awarded within 4 months of the application due date. However, administrative requirements and other unforeseen circumstances may delay issuance dates beyond that timeline.

Registration is required.

Archived Web Conferences

Informational Web Conferences were scheduled for June 3, 2015 and July 22, 2015
Recordings for both events are now available.

June 3, 2015 web conference recording available here.

July 22, 2015 web conference recording available here.

Timing: Since applications are accepted on a rolling basis, there is no deadline for submission. Generally, applicants can expect to be notified within 6-8 weeks of their LOI submission. Applicants invited to the full proposal stage will have 2 months to submit their proposal once they receive notification. Full proposal funding decisions will generally be made within 6-8 weeks of the submission deadline.

AMOUNT: Approximately $2.2 million will be awarded annually. We expect to fund between five and 12 grants each year for periods of up to 30 months. We anticipate that this funding opportunity will remain open for at least a period of three years; however, decisions about modifications to the program and the duration of the program will be made by RWJF at its sole discretion.

DESCRIPTION: Evidence for Action: Investigator-Initiated Research to Build a Culture of Health is a national program of RWJF that supports the Foundation's commitment to building a Culture of Health in the United States. The program aims to provide individuals, organizations, communities, policymakers, and researchers with the empirical evidence needed to address the key determinants of health encompassed in the Culture of Health Action Framework. In addition, Evidence for Action will also support efforts to assess outcomes and set priorities for action. It will do this by encouraging and supporting creative, rigorous research on the impact of innovative programs, policies and partnerships on health and well-being, and on novel approaches to measuring health determinants and outcomes.

information on health care policy, financing and organization issues. Supported projects include:

examining significant issues and interventions related to health care financing and organization and their effects on health care costs, quality and access; and exploring or testing major new ways to finance and organize health care that have the potential to improve access to more affordable and higher quality health services.

Eligibility and Selection Criteria

Researchers, as well as practitioners and public and private policy-makers working with researchers, are eligible to submit proposals through their organizations. Projects may be initiated from within many disciplines, including health services research, economics, sociology, political science, public policy, public health, public administration, law and business administration. RWJF encourages proposals from organizations on behalf of researchers who are just beginning their careers, who can serve either individually as principal investigators or as part of a project team comprising researchers or other collaborators with more experience. Only organizations and government entities are eligible to receive funding under this program.

Preference will be given to applicants that are either public entities or nonprofit organizations that are tax-exempt under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are not private foundations as defined under Section 509(a).

➤ Kaboom! Invites Grant Applications to Open Previously Unavailable Playgrounds

Deadline: KaBOOM! is inviting grant applications from communities anywhere in the United States working to establish joint use agreements to re-open playground and recreational facilities previously unavailable due to safety and upkeep concerns. (No specific deadline.)

Amount: Let's Play Land Use grants of $15,000 and $30,000 will support creation of joint-use agreements between local governments and school districts that address cost concerns related to safety, vandalism, maintenance, and liability issues to re-open previously unavailable playgrounds and recreational facilities.

The $15,000 grants will support the opening of at least four playgrounds in cities with populations of less than 100,000 people. The $30,000 grants will support the opening of at least eight playgrounds in larger communities.

Description: Grants can be used for training and technical assistance, utilities and other building related to the extra use of the facility, legal fees, contract security services, and marketing campaigns related to the joint-use agreement. Grant recipients must commit to opening the playgrounds within twelve months of the grant decision.

Complete grant application guidelines are available on the KaBOOM! website:

learning and ways to bring together community-based systems that promote learning. The foundation will consider grants in four priority areas: Educated Kids; Healthy Kids; Secure Families; and Civic Engagement.

Educated Kids: To ensure that all children get the development and education they need as a basis for independence and success, the foundation seeks opportunities to invest in early child development (ages zero to eight) leading to reading proficiency by third grade, graduation from high school, and pathways to meaningful employment.

Healthy Kids: The foundation supports programs that work to ensure that all children grow and reach optimal well-being by having access to fresh, healthy food, physical activity, quality health care, and strong family supports.

Secure Families: The foundation supports programs that build economic security for vulnerable children and their families through sustained income and asset accumulation.

Civic Engagement: The foundation partners with organizations committed to inclusion, impact, and innovation in solving public problems and meeting the needs of children and families who are most vulnerable.

• W.K. Kellogg Foundation

Deadline: The Kellogg Foundation does not have any submission deadlines. Grant applications are accepted throughout the year and are reviewed at their headquarters in Battle Creek, Michigan, or in our regional office in Mexico (for submissions focused within their region).

Amount: NO LIMIT (Please read restrictions/What they won't fund.)

Description: What to Expect Once they receive your completed online application, an automated response, which includes your WKKF reference number, will be sent to you acknowledging its receipt. Their goal is to review your application and email their initial response to you within 45 days. Your grant may be declined or it may be selected for further development.

As part of review process you may be asked to submit your organization's financial reports and/or IRS Form 990. While this information may be required, it is not intended to be the overall determining factor for any funding. You will not be asked to provide any financial reports or detailed budget information during this initial submission. They will only request this information later if needed as part of the proposal development.

SCHOLARSHIP:

The Meyerhoff Adaptation Project -

The Meyerhoff Scholars Program is open to all high-achieving high school seniors who have an interest in pursuing doctoral study in the sciences or engineering, and who are interested in the advancement of minorities in the sciences and related fields. Students must be nominated for the program and are most typically nominated by their high school administrators, guidance counselors, and teachers. Awards range from $5,000 – $22,000 per year for four years.

The Meyerhoff Selection Committee considers students academic performance, standardized test scores, recommendation letters, and commitment to community service. Scholars are selected for their interests in the sciences, engineering, mathematics, or computer science, as well as their plans to pursue a Ph.D. or combined M.D./Ph.D. in the sciences or engineering. Reviewing the freshman class profile may provide an idea of the kinds of students who are admitted to UMBC and the Meyerhoff Scholars Program.

Applicants are expected to have completed a strong college preparatory program of study from an accredited high school. The minimum program of study should include:

English: four years

Social Science/History: three years

Mathematics*: three years

Science: three years

NORTHWEST PORTLAND AREA INDIAN HEALTH BOARD
Funding Opportunities
AUGUST 2018

Language other than English: two years

*Students are strongly recommended to have completed four years of mathematics, including trigonometry, pre-calculus, and/or calculus.

Eligibility Criteria

To be considered for the Meyerhoff Scholars Program, prospective students must have at least a “B” average in high school science or math courses, and many applicants have completed a year or more of calculus. Preference is given to those who have taken advanced placement courses in math and science, have research experience, and have strong references from science or math instructors. In recent years, a strong preference has been given to those students interested in the Ph.D. or M.D./Ph.D. (over the M.D.).

Students must meet all eligibility requirements:

Minimum of 600 on the Math component of the SAT

Cumulative High School GPA of a 3.0 or above

Aspire to obtain a Ph.D. or M.D./Ph.D. in Math, Science, Computer Science, or Engineering

Display commitment to community service

Must be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States

First-generation students represent a cross-section of America and college campus demographics. First Scholars come from diverse cultural, socioeconomic, geographic and family backgrounds and experiences. First-gen students are found in all departments and colleges of virtually every major public university across the country. Our affiliate universities have an average 30-50% first-gen enrollment and the number keeps rising. However, the average national graduation rate for first-generation students is only 34%, compared with 55% for the general student population.

DEADLINE: & AMOUNT: For more information, contact Karen Probert at internship@asphn.org.

NORTHWEST PORTLAND AREA INDIAN HEALTH BOARD
Funding Opportunities
AUGUST 2018

DESCRIPTION: DHPE has received supplemental funding to support the Health Equity Internship for an additional year. The funding is from the Centers of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) Division for Heart Disease and Stroke Prevention (DHDSPP). The mission of the CDC DHDSPP is to provide public health leadership to improve cardiovascular health for all, reduce the burden, and eliminate disparities associated with heart disease and stroke. DHPE is working with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) to administer the Internship Program for the 2017 Spring cohort.

College students selected for these cohorts should be interested in an internship project and placement site that focuses on the following:

Cardiovascular Disease Risks Reduction;

Heart Disease Prevention and Education, including Hypertension and Stroke;

Nutrition and Healthy Eating;

Physical Activity and/or Obesity. Interested students should mention their proposed internship site within their application.

Preference will be given to undergraduate and graduate students who attend Minority-Serving Institutions (HBCUs, HSIs and Tribal Colleges), are from racial and ethnic populations, and/or have demonstrated interest in working to achieve health equity in minority and underserved communities.

VFW Accepting Applications From Veterans for Emergency Financial Assistance

DEADLINE: Open

AMOUNT: Grants of up to $5,000 will be awarded to active and discharged military service members who have been deployed in the last six years and have run into unexpected financial difficulties as a result of deployment or other military-related activity or natural disaster....

DESCRIPTION: As the nation's largest organization of combat veterans, we understand the challenges veterans, service members and military families can face and believe that experiencing financial difficulties should not be one of them. That's the premise behind the VFW's Unmet Needs program.

Unmet Needs is there to help America's service members who have been deployed in the last six years and have run into unexpected financial difficulties as a result of deployment or other military-related activity. The program provides financial aid of up to $5,000 to assist with basic life needs in the form of a grant -not a loan- so no repayment is required. To further ease the burden, we pay the creditor directly.

Since the program's inception, Unmet Needs has distributed over $5 million in assistance to qualified military families, with nearly half of those funds going directly toward basic housing needs.

The needs of our veterans, service members and their families should never go unmet. Let us offer you a hand up when you need it!

Please review the Unmet Needs eligibility criteria to see if you or someone you know qualifies for a grant through the Unmet Needs program.

RWJF: Submit a Pioneering Idea Brief Proposal - Throughout the year, we welcome Pioneering Ideas Brief Proposals that can help us anticipate the future and consider new and unconventional perspectives and approaches to building a Culture of Health.

DEADLINE: Open

AMOUNT: See site

DESCRIPTION: The goal of the Pioneering Ideas Brief Proposal funding opportunity is to explore; to look into the future and put health first as we design for changes in how we live, learn, work and play; to wade into uncharted territory in order to better understand what new trends, opportunities and breakthrough ideas can enable everyone in America to live the healthiest life possible.

While improving the status quo is vital to the health and well-being of millions of Americans now, the Pioneering Ideas Brief Proposal opportunity reaches beyond incremental changes to explore the ideas and trends that will influence the trajectory and future of health. Ultimately, we support work that will help us learn what a Culture of Health can look like—and how we can get there.

What is a Pioneering Idea?

Good question! We don't want to provide a checklist that limits your thinking—or ours. We do want to give you as clear a picture as we can about the kinds of proposals we hope to see, so you can best assess whether submitting an idea through our Pioneering Ideas Brief Proposal process is the right next step for you. Our application form allows you to introduce your idea; if it seems to be a fit for our portfolio we will reach out for more information.

We share some examples below of Pioneering Ideas we have funded in the past to give you a sense of where we've been. Keep in mind that ultimately, we need you to challenge us, and to tell us where we should be going and what ideas have the most potential to transform the way we think about health. As you review the examples below, you may notice some shared themes or characteristics which:

Challenge assumptions or long-held cultural practices.

Take an existing idea and give it a new spin—or a novel application.

Offer a new take or perspective on a long-running, perplexing problem.

Apply cutting-edge ideas from other fields to health.

Explore the potential for emerging trends to impact our ability to build a Culture of Health.

Good Sports Accepting Applications for Sports Equipment Program

DEADLINE: ROLLING FUNDING

AMOUNT: While the equipment, apparel, and footwear received through the program are free, recipients are expected to pay shipping and handling costs, which amount to roughly 10 percent of the donation value, with a maximum fee of $1,500.

DESCRIPTION: Good Sports helps lay the foundation for healthy, active lifestyles by providing athletic equipment, footwear, and apparel to disadvantaged young people nationwide. By working closely with teams, coaches, and community leaders across the United States, the organization is able to focus on the respective needs of each individual program and help offset the main factors causing the greatest challenges.

Good Sports is accepting applications from organizations and schools for equipment, apparel, and footwear for a wide range of sports. Organizations that are approved will have access to equipment, apparel, and footwear inventory for a two-year period. During that time, organizations can make up to six separate donation requests — as long as need is well documented, donations will be granted. There is no need to resubmit a full application again during the two-year period.

To be eligible, applicants must directly serve youth between the ages of 3 and 18; serve youth in an economically disadvantaged area; be located in North America (the U.S. and Canada); and operate an organized sport, recreational activity, or fitness program that offers consistent and structured opportunity for play to large groups of children. Schools must apply as a whole; applications for individual programs within a school will not be considered. Donation requests for short-term events such as sports camps and tournaments or to individual athletes will not be considered.

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. It is recommended, however, that organizations apply at least eight weeks prior to the start of their particular season or program to ensure the desired equipment can be accessed and shipped on time.

- Changes and updates to the Adolescent Health Tribal Action Plan

What is the Alliance?

The NW Native Adolescent Health Alliance is an inclusive, multi-functional group that meets quarterly in OR, WA, and ID to discuss cross-cutting planning and prevention strategies targeting AI/AN teens and young adults (addressing tobacco, substance abuse, STD/HIV, teen pregnancy, and suicide topics). Our goal is to support regional action planning, resource development, and sharing.

Who Should Attend?

All interested parties are invited to attend, including tribal health and prevention staff, IHS, State Health Department personnel, MSPI funding recipients, and University and Community partners from ID, OR, and WA. Please email Celena McCray at cmccray@npaihb.org if you will be attending in person.

How Do I Attend Virtually?

Join from PC, Mac, iOS or Android: <https://echo.zoom.us/j/428512819>. If you have any questions about this software, please contact Celena McCray, cmccray@npaihb.org, prior to the date of the meeting to find out how to use Zoom. You will need to download the Zoom app for your phone if you want to be part of the meeting via a tablet or cell phone.

More Information?

Check out the Adolescent Health Tribal Action Plan here! Project Red Talon and THRIVE developed the plan in partnership with NW tribal health advocates, hoping it will be used by the NW Tribes and partnering agencies to guide program planning, and foster a coordinated response to adolescent health and well-being in our tribal communities.

Save the Date! NEW DATES!!!

2018 American Indian Health Commission for Washington State's Tribal and State Leaders Health Summit

This Summit is scheduled for November 7th and 8th, 2018

At:

*The Suquamish Clearwater Resort and Casino, Suquamish
Washington, of the Suquamish Tribe of Indians.*

The American Indian Health Commission (AIHC) is committed to advocating for improving the health of all Tribal people. The two-day Summit is a unique and strategically significant event for tribes in Washington State. We bring together Tribal leaders, state legislators, Tribal and urban Indian health organization staff members, state agency representatives, Federal Region 10 representatives and the Portland Area Indian Health Service to discuss Tribal legislative and programmatic health priorities. Over the years the Summit has become a vitally important forum for strategic Tribal – State planning and collaboration in Washington.

The work of the summit will be to produce actionable and accountable plans for work to be done by the State, Tribes, the AIHC and other partners throughout the next two years to improve the health of American Indians and Alaskan Natives in our State.
