

WEAVE-NW

Webinar Series

Topic: Engaging Native Youth in Health Policy Change

Date: August 23rd, 2016

Time: 1:00-2:00pm (PST)

Summary:

Youth are sustainable resources that are equipped with creative ideas, leadership, intrigue, and have the capacity to connect to the community in different ways. Their ability to address current issues while honoring past traditions makes them an asset to the community. This webinar will highlight some of the projects of our tribal youth across Idaho, Oregon, and Washington. Please listen to this webinar for an opportunity to learn about past and present projects while gaining new insights to some of the opportunities available for our tribal youth.

Adobe Connect: <https://npaihb.adobeconnect.com/qip/>

Call in information: 1-800-832-0736

Room Number: 5008642

If you have questions, please contact:

Nora Alexander (Nez Perce)

Phone: 503.416.3253

email: nalexander@npaihb.org