Resolution # 18-04-02

FLIGHT: Future Leaders in IndiGenous Health

WHEREAS, the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board (hereinafter "NPAIHB" or the "Board") was established in 1972 to assist Tribal governments to improve the health status and quality of life of Indian people; and

WHEREAS, the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board is a "tribal organization" as defined by the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (P.L. 93-638 seq. et al) that represents forty-three federally recognized tribes in the states of Idaho, Oregon, and Washington; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with the definitions of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act at 25 USCS §450b, a tribal organization is recognized as a governing body of any Indian tribe and includes any legally established organization of Indians which is controlled, sanctioned, or chartered by such governing body or which is democratically elected by the adult members of the Indian community to be served by such organization and which includes the maximum participation of Indians in all phases of its activities; and

WHEREAS, NPAIHB is dedicated to assisting and promoting the health needs and concerns of Indian people; and

WHEREAS, the primary goal of the NPAIHB is to improve the health and quality of life of its member Tribes; and

WHEREAS, the Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) is the only public health and research university in the state of Oregon; and

WHEREAS, OHSU strives for excellence in education, research and scholarship, clinical practice and community service as part of its multifaceted public mission; and

WHEREAS, OHSU strives to lead and advocate for programs that improve health for all, and extend OHSU's education, research and healthcare missions through community service, partnership and outreach; and

WHEREAS, OHSU School of Medicine seeks to enhance human health through programs of excellence in education, research, health care and public service to the larger community including underserved populations; and

WHEREAS, OHSU Department of Family Medicine aims to be a supportive and collaborative organization that transforms primary care and inspires future leaders by demonstrating the best in Family Medicine by serving our patients and communities through excellence in clinical care, education, research, and leadership in Family Medicine; and

WHEREAS, in collaboration with the NPAIHB's THRIVE and We R Native projects, the Director of the Northwest Native American Center of Excellence, Dr. Erik Brodt, MD is proposing the FLIGHT: Future Leaders in IndiGenous Health project, funded by HRSA; and

WHEREAS, working together, NPAIHB and OHSU will recruit, train, and retain Native American health professional students and faculty; and

WHEREAS, the partnership will raise awareness of Native American health issues; and

WHEREAS, will further tribal-academic partnerships in education and research.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that: The Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board strongly supports the application of Oregon Health & Science University to HRSA for the FLIGHT: Future Leaders in IndiGenous Health project.
