Local Food, Local Places 2018-2019 Application

Local Foods, Local Places helps communities revitalize neighborhoods through development of local food systems. In 2017, the program was supported by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the Delta Regional Authority. The Northern Border Regional Commission will join as a program sponsor in 2018. Read more here.

Application Deadline: October 22, 2018

Webinar on Applying: October 4, 2018 from 3-4pm EDT

Responding to Opioid Use Disorders in Tribal Communities in the Context of SAMHSA and CDC Funding (R61/R33—Clinical Trials Optional):

Funding to support culturally relevant research to improve response to the opioid crisis in tribal communities by using community engaged research approaches to build science around SAMHSA and/or CDC supported programs. The goal is to identify the most effective prevention and/or treatment approaches for opioid use, misuse, and Opioid Use Disorder and related comorbidities in tribal communities, where unique culture, structures for and access to healthcare, and beliefs about treatment all impact health and social outcomes.
