Pacific Northwest Tribes Encouraged to Apply

The Center for Healthy Communities is coordinating with the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board (NPAIHB) to recruit Pacific Northwest Tribes and tribal organizations who serve American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) high-school aged youth to receive training on the delivery of Native STAND (Students Together Against Negative Decisions), a healthy decisions curriculum for enhancing and promoting positive development and well-being.

The Native STAND training program will take place June 21-27, 2015 in Portland, Oregon in conjunction with the Summer Research Training Institute for AI/AN Health Professionals and the THRIVE (Tribal Health – Reaching out InVolves Everyone) Tribal Youth Conference.

Native STAND summer training applications are now available and interested applicants can apply electronically or download an application at www.oregonprc.org. Applications are due February 15, 2015. There are two upcoming opportunities to learn more about Native STAND.

NPAIHB OBM Winter Meeting Informational Presentation: Michelle Singer, Native STAND Project Manager, will present on Native STAND on Wednesday, January 21, 2015 to encourage NPAIHB member Tribes to apply.

Native STAND Informational Live Webinar: A one-hour live webinar will be offered to those interested in learning more about the Native STAND.
